CINCINNATI'S FIRST-EVER URBAN TRAIL LOOP

The CROWN (Cincinnati Riding Or Walking Network) will surround Cincinnati's urban core with a 34-mile multi-use trail loop. More than 356,000 residents across 54 communities will be connected to the best that our city has to offer--breweries, restaurants, parks, attractions, and more. When complete, the CROWN will also promote sustainability, transportation equity, and the overall economic vitality of Cincinnati.

The CROWN is led by Tri-State Trails, Wasson Way, and Ohio River Way, and is supported by a public-private partnership. The project will leverage $46 million in public funding by raising $10 million in private donations to bring the vision for Cincinnati's first-ever urban trail loop to fruition. When complete, CROWN will connect several key regional trails that are currently disparate - Wasson Way, Ohio River Trail, Little Miami Scenic Trail, and Mill Creek Greenway.
